

Please do not do anything which will circumvent Indiana's no-call list. We used to receive 10-12 call a day from unwanted telemarketers. Now we receive none. If you want to include the states which do not have one, that is fine. We have voted on our local representatives to protect us, and they are doing a fine job. We do not need the federal government to override what the local people want.